

Accommodation

The District accommodates refugees in shared accommodation (residential facilities) within the framework of temporary accommodation provision. The Refugee Reception Act (FlüAG) determines the standards with respect to housing conditions. The residence period of the refugees in the accommodation constitutes the time it takes for a decision to be made on their asylum application, or a maximum of 24 months.